

This fall there are wonderful new things happening, even in the middle of a pandemic!

The building is open to welcome students who come to campus. Several students rely on the quiet environment and stable internet to take their online classes.

UCM has eight new students connected to the ministry, five of whom are freshman. Four students are leading small groups, three for the first time, and a fifth is ready to start in the spring. UCM was able to host its first Fall Retreat. Programs are going well; but it's not just another fall on campus.

Due to the Coronavirus, United Campus Ministry has been unable to rent out our facilities and parking lot to generate income which will leave a shortfall for the year.
